

HOTEL MONASTERO DI CHERASCO

October 21, 2007
Hotel 1000 ♦ Seattle, WA

All of us of Piedmont Places welcomed current reservation holders and guests to the Hotel 1000 on October 21. Our first event was a wonderful success and we would like to warmly welcome our newest owners to the Hotel Monastero di Cherasco.

Sharon and Mel Taylor
Bob and Gabrielle Mellon

We would also like to congratulate Joan and Eric Lang. They are the lucky winners of 3 nights accommodation at Hotel Castello di Sinio, and to Jane Finch who was the appreciative winner of a Bottle of Aldo Conterno 1999 Barolo "Bussia"

Guests tasted some wonderful wines and cheeses that were chosen specially for them. Many of our guests have requested information about the frommaggi and vini.

Travelling Stories wanted!

We would love to hear from those of you that have travelled to Italy. Especially Piedmont! If anyone would like to tell us of your Italian travels, please do, and we will put your travelogue on our website. Email Holly@PiedmontPlaces.com with any tips, experiences, hotels etc.

OR

If any of you would like help planning a trip to Le Langhe and Piedmont, please email Holly. I would love to help with info on air routes, hotels, restaurants, car rental, or anything else I can help with. Holly@PiedmontPlaces.com

Holly and Breffni are off on their 4th trip to Italy this year in mid November. Check the website for new news, photographs, and updates when we return in late November.

For everyone that isn't traveling to Piedmont for this season's tartufo bianco, drop by La Buona Tavola in Pike Place Market. Rei, the very knowledgeable owner, can educate you on everything tartufo. Oils, creams, and other things truffle.
